

One Day Art Workshop @ TADAS

Let's Explore Acrylics with Noeline Millar

Today we will paint acrylics on watercolour paper starting with a loose painterly sketch. This will be followed with large washes of thin paint to define our tones and block in our shapes (as if we are painting outdoors from nature). This method leaves opportunity to change or correct errors in our composition at a very early stage. Subject matter will be a local coastal area with trees etc.
